INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Carrie E. Marlow being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 33 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through both parents. I don't know how much Indian blood they claimed but they were both Cherokees. My father was about 25 years old when he died. Don't know how old my mother was when she died, but guess she was about the age of my father. My grandfather on my mother's side was an Old Settler, I think, but none of my other ancestors were that I know of. My father got his Indian descent through his father and mother. Don't know how much Indian Andrew Fields was. Betty Lovett was my grandmother on my mother's side. She was not an Old Settler. ~~Ben knew where Andrew Fields was living in 1851~~ Curry Pettit (O. S. G. S. 37) had a daughter named Aggie (O. S. G. S. 39). Andrew Fields was living in the West in 1851, in Going Snake District. Betsy Enloe was my great grandmother and she was living in 1851, I think. Don't know whether Andrew Fields ever received any Old Settler money or not. Elmira Fields (G. S. 454) was a sister of Andrew (G. S. 453). Elmira's name now is Patrick. I think he also had a sister named Martha or Mattie Fields. John Fields, who lives at Stilwell, is a brother of my father. Andy is another, and he lives at the same place. Richard Fields is another and he is the oldest, ~~Expats know where he lives~~ I think. He lives at the same place. Joe and Ben were also brothers of my father. I am on the Dawes Commission roll #5032. I have some half brothers on my mother's side by the name of Hensley. John (who lives at Eaton, Okla.), Terrie Hensley (married now - lives at Eaton, Okla.), Sam is another and he lives at Tahlequah. Houston was another and he lives at Tahlequah. Jim Hensley is another - lives at Tahlequah. Joe is another and he lives at Tahlequah.

Hon. Guion Miller,

Special Agt for the Court of Claims of the U.S.

Sir:---

In Reply to A. L. S. #10711.

Allow me to say that said children was reported to the Agents of the Dawes Commission, for enrollment as cherokees and as Cherokees by blood--

As to whether they were enrolled or no I am unable to say-- Maggie was born in 1902, Sept 26th--

Sallie was born April 28, 1905.

Such are the facts as I know them to be with reference to my said minor children---and as complete reply as I am now able to make to the notice of March 6th, 1909 as stated---

The fact of the minors as my children and that they were living was made known to the Agent of the Commission as stated, and for the purpose of their enrollment, and as to what was done in the matter I have never been advised---

Respectfully,

Reasons:

The applicant claims thru her mother and maternal grand parents. Her mother was born after 1851. It has been impossible to locate definitely the name of the maternal grand parent of the applicant on the census of 1851. The father of applicant's grandmother was Samuel Foster. He is enrolled in 16 Saline together with his wife and the great aunts and uncles of applicant. The names of applicant's ancestors do not appear on the Old Settler roll and the testimony taken in this case places the ancestors of applicant to be Eastern Cherokees. See Min. Dec. P. 4379, 3649.

Edward Fritz being first duly sworn, deposes and says: My name is Edward Fritz. I live at Vinita, Okla. 8613 is my Dawes Commission number. I made my claim through my mother. I don't think she was old enough to get money in 1890. My father was a white man. My mother's father's name was John Bigsida. I don't know whether my mother's parents were living in 1892 or not. My mother's mother had a brother by the name of Roastingear. ~~xxxxxx~~ Her mother's brother's name was Jeff Ballou. Jeff Ballou did not get any money as I know of. My mother's mother had the following brothers:-- Stealer (or Kar-nah-tse-sta-tse) and Sansucker (or Ka-hyor-lah) I don't remember any other names of my grandmother's brothers and sisters.
See Saline 16.

Edward Fritz.

SUBSCRIBED and sworn to before me at Vinita, Okla. this 12th day of October 1908.

Harry C. Black.
Asst to Special Commissioner,
U. S. Court of Claims.

Think this claim should be paid but could not find grandmother's name.

10732-10730

Francis Fritz, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, in behalf of Edward Fritz:-

I am 72 years old. I am the step-father of Edward Fritz. His own father's name was Harding Prot. He was an Emigrant Cherokee. Harding Prot and my wife were never married but it was the general saying in the community that Harding Prot was the father of Edward Fritz. There was never any doubt about that fact. Edward Fritz was enrolled on the 1880 roll as Eddie Prot. The parents of Harding Prot were James Prot and Rachel Prot. Harding Prot had no brothers and sisters---- Ross, Oce or J. B., William, Benjamin, who was in the west in 1851, Mary, who married a man by the name of Steadman, Charlotte, Timothy or Tip, (see Chapman 1670-77) James and Rachel were living in the east in 1851. I do not think that Harding Prot was born until his parents came out to the Territory. He was born after 1851. Edward's mother was named Aggie, and Aggie's father's name was Big sides but she always went by the name of Foster before her marriage. Aggie's mother was named Nancy Foster, but she went sometimes by the name of Ballou. She was a full sister of Jeff Ballou, who died about ten years ago. Jeff Ballou went a part of the time by the name of Jack Foster. I think that Jeff Ballou was old enough to be on the roll of 1851. His Cherokee name was Hun-dee-sta-chih or Wasp. The Cherokee name of Nancy Foster was Hun-chih. I do not know whether Nancy Foster ever lived with any other man besides Bigsides or not. I do not know who Nancy and Jeff's parents were. Nancy Foster was an Emigrant Cherokee. She was considered to be a full-blood Cherokee. When the old settler payment was made in 1896 I made inquiry to see if there was any chance of getting in on the old settler payment and old Jeff Ballou told me that Edward Fritz was a descendant of Emigrant Cherokees. Nancy Foster was born in the East. I do not know when Nancy came out to the Indian Territory. I understand that Jeff Ballou came out her at the time of the Emigration. Jeff and Nancy had the following brothers and sisters,--- Coastingear Foster, (Hoo-wah-n e-guh, Adam, Ap-suh-er, Ar-nah-tse-sta-tae or Wasp, (this was the Indian name of Jeff Ballou) (see aline 16) Jah-nee-gah or Lackhaw, Ah-lin, or Ellen. Jeff Ballou and Nancy Foster's father was named an Foster or an Coastingear. Nancy's father is the mother of Lackhaw and Jess? Nancy was a good deal older than Jeff Ballou. Nancy Foster died when Aggie was a little girl. I don't know the exact date. I do not know whether Nancy Foster ever was married to any other man than Bigsides or not. Nancy Foster lived in Saline District in 1851. Edward Fritz and Jeff Ballou, the grandson of old Jeff Ballou are 2nd cousins, Edward's mother and young Jeff's father were first cousins. Elizabeth and Fannie E. Bolderbrand and Fannie Fritz are half sisters to Edward Fritz.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of March, 1900, at Anita, Okla.

Claimants don't know who their father was and understand that the above.

Witness my hand and seal this 1st day of March, 1900.

she would be 52 years old

she used to go by the name of Agness Foster, but we found out lately that her

My grand father or my mother's mother's uncles were Roastingear Foster.

Jeff. Ballou.

That's about all I could find out.

Hon. Sirs.

In Reply to your inquiry of the 26 inst. I will say that I was on the name and did not receive your letter promptly.

Michael or Bob, Berry as he was sometimes known was my grandfather and my best understanding is that that he was enrolled in 1835 on the Eastern & Cherokee Roll.

He was enrolled in the State of Tennessee as it is now Kansas.

My father's Brother, James Smith came here years ago and we put his name on the 1835 roll. He died several years ago near Tatlegnah & Cherokee Nation.

We brought suit in the United States Court at Muscogee Ind. Ter. in 1901 for James Smith's part of old Settlers money. In this suit we were declared said James Smith's heirs by blood and was awarded his part. The money by the United States Government the same year.

My father and Mother were first cousins by blood. Said Michael or Bob Berry was my Mother's father and my father's uncle. Said James Smith was my father's own brother.

Michael or Bob Berry, Matthew S. Smith, was my mother, Martha Smith never lived in the Ind. Ter. James Smith as I've already said died.

Please address me in all future communications, Winona Okla., as I've been changed by my conference to this place.

Appln. No. 10749.

January 29, 1908.

Heroy E. Clark,
Porum,
Oklahoma.

Sir:

Relative to applications Nos. 10749, 10750, 10751 and 10753, filed by you as attorney on behalf of claimants for participation in the fund arising from the decree of the Court of Claims in favor of the Western Cherokees, please obtain and furnish this office with the following information:

1. Have applicants state the full names of their grandparents on the father's side.
2. In the application of Nannie Train, she states that her father's name is John Beavers, and that her mother's name is Lizzie Wildebrand, whose maiden name was Lizzie Swimmer, and then says that her mother's parents were Beece and Mary Wildebrand. Please explain this seeming inconsistency.
3. Under what name was Lizzie Wildebrand, the mother of Nannie Train, probably enrolled in 1851, and in what District?
4. Were any of the grandparents ever enrolled, and if so, when, where, and under what names?

Give any other information obtainable tending to establish the rights of these applicants to participate in the fund.

This letter applies to the applications of George Train, Sam Campbell, Cynthia Peters and Nannie Train, all residents of Ark. In early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

W.E.H.

Special Commissioner.

10749/10753/10751/10753

Cynthia Peters being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am about 40 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through both parents. I guess my father was a full blood Cherokee. My mother was about 1/2 Cherokee. I think my parents were living near Tahlequah in 1851. They were not Old Settlers. Don't suppose my parents were married in 1851. Nannie Campbell, Jim Campbell, George Crain and Nannie Crain are half brothers and sisters on my mother's side. My mother was married several times. Before marriage she was Lizzie Hildebrand. My mother was just a little girl in 1851. My mother was the oldest child. I suppose her brothers and sisters were born after 1851. My grandmother's name was Mary Hildebrand (Tah. 170) - Elizabeth Hildebrand (Tah. 170), mother. My father had an Indian name but I don't know what it is. He may have been enrolled under that. He had no brothers and sisters that I know of.

Sir:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the decree of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, please state under what name you think your father was enrolled in 1851? The name, as you spell it in your application, does not seem to be upon the Roll, and I therefore request that you be careful in answering this letter to spell the name correctly and to write plainly. State also the full names of your grandparents on both sides? Were they, or any of them, ever enrolled as Eastern Cherokees: if so, state when, where and under what names?

Give any other information obtainable tending to establish your right to participate in this fund.

A prompt reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Sir:

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly advise this Office why you were not enrolled on the Eastern Cherokee enrollment of 1851, also of 1835.

Where were you living in 1851?

Was your mother a white woman, an Indian, or a negro? If a negro, was she held as a slave; if so, was she owned by white people or Indians?

Please give this matter prompt attention and refer in your reply to the number of your application.

Very respectfully,

 the Indians was gone when we got there so I had no opportunity to enroll the Green Oak settlement and after in her County also still inquiring after her husband John White and

IN RE ESTATE OF JOHN LATCHER.

#10798 - REPORT ON LATCHER-CURTIS GROUP.

There is a large number of cases in which the applicants claim the right to share in the distribution of the Eastern Cherokee Fund, by reason of the fact that they are descendants of one John Latcher, who they allege, was an Eastern Cherokee Indian. These applicants are scattered over a wide area, - some in Texas, some in Tennessee, some in Indiana, and a number in several other States. They claim through no other source than John Latcher. The name "Latcher" does not appear either on the Roll of 1877 or 1881, nor do any of the descendants of John Latcher appear on the Indian Roll of 1877 or the Eastern Roll of 1881. There is nothing in any of these applications or in any of the letters received in regard to these cases, which would indicate that John Latcher or any of his descendants ever lived with the Cherokee tribe. There is nothing in any of these cases which would show that John Latcher or any of his descendants were living in the Indian Territory of 1877-8 and 1881. The only thing in any of these cases is that John Latcher was a man of a certain name who lived in North Carolina to Tennessee in 1877, and that he came from the "Cherry Nation", which was a name for a band of familiarity with Cherokee affairs. There is nothing in these applications which shows the slightest connection with the Eastern Cherokee, and for these reasons, all of these applicants who base their claims upon John Latcher, are rejected.
